

Attorney Bio

Molly Condon is a senior associate in WSHB's Chicago office, specializing in complex commercial litigation, including product liability, professional liability, employment disputes, and insurance coverage matters. In addition, Ms. Condon enjoys substantial experience handling complex nursing home abuse and high exposure medical malpractice matters. Her depth of experience extends to both state and federal courts. During law school, Ms. Condon externed for the Honorable Lorna Propes in the Circuit Court of Cook County — Law Division. Her trial court experience affords Ms. Condon invaluable insight in defending clients and successful strategies to employ.

Ms. Condon earned her law degree at Chicago-Kent College of Law, where she was a merit scholarship recipient. While a student at Chicago-Kent, she was named to the Dean's List for all three years. Additionally, Ms. Condon was a member of the nationally ranked trial advocacy team. Her trial team won the Chicago Regional Championship, and finished as a National Semi-Finalist at the American Association for Justice Student Trial Advocacy Competition. Ms. Condon graduated in a little over three years from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, where she was named to the Dean's List. Throughout her educational career, Ms. Condon cultivated a global perspective in advocacy and problem-solving. While in college, she studied crisis diplomacy at the Vienna University of Economics and Business in Vienna, Austria. As a law student, she took a course in International Advocacy in Dublin, Ireland at the Honorable Society of King's Inns.

Ms. Condon was selected to the Illinois Super Lawyers' "Rising Stars" list, a distinction limited to fewer than 2.5% of the attorneys in Illinois, in 2018 and 2019.
