

WOOD SMITH HENNING & BERMAN LLP

Attorney Bio

Albert is a senior associate in WSHB's Seattle office, where his practice encompasses a variety of complex civil litigation matters, including construction defect, catastrophic injury, professional liability, and commercial litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Albert worked as staff counsel for an insurance carrier, handling complex injury and premises liability matters.

Albert is a graduate of the Seattle University School of Law, where he was the Vice President of the Asian Pacific Islander Law Student Association and served on the Moot Court Board as a Regional Competition Administrator. While in law school, he also served as a judicial extern for Justice Sheryl Gordon McCloud on the Washington Supreme Court.

Following law school, Albert clerked for both the Honorable Joseph E. Cardoza and Honorable Peter T. Cahill of the Second Circuit Court of Hawaii. Albert received his undergraduate degrees in English and Sociology from the University of Washington.
