

Attorney Bio

Christopher Brown is a senior associate in WSHB's Phoenix office, where his practice focuses on catastrophic injury and construction defect matters. While attending law school at Arizona State University, Christopher clerked for both the Arizona Legislature House Rules Attorney Office and the City of Tempe Attorney's Office. Christopher also clerked for a firm, where he handled a variety of general liability and employment matters. During law school, Christopher received the Highest Pro Bono Distinction award, the Dean's Award in Recognition of Outstanding Performance at the College of Law, and was selected for membership in The Order of Barristers, which is given to students who demonstrate exceptional skill in trial advocacy, oral advocacy, and brief writing.

Before law school, Christopher served two years as an AmeriCorps VISTA with Habitat for Humanity of Virginia. In his free time, Christopher enjoys traveling and working on his golf game.
