

Attorney Bio

Colton Chrimes is an associate in WSHB's Tampa office, where he handles complex civil litigation in a number of practice areas including professional liability, construction and commercial litigation. In addition, he handles general civil litigation and subrogation matters on behalf of a number of clients. Prior to joining the firm, Colton worked for a state-wide civil litigation firm in Jacksonville, Florida, which helped him gain extensive experience in this multi-faceted industry.

Colton graduated cum laude from The University of Florida, Levin College of Law. During his time in law school, Colton completed an externship with the Honorable Virginia M. Hernandez Covington in the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida and interned for the Honorable Robert A. Foster, Jr. in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. Prior to law school, Colton attended Florida State University, where he received a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Real Estate. During his undergraduate summers, Colton was an intern at the Hillsborough County Public Defender's Office in Tampa, Florida. Colton brings the elaborate knowledge he has gained and his extreme thoroughness to every matter he handles on behalf of the firm.
