

Attorney Bio

George Hiller is an associate in WSHB's Tampa office, where he handles a variety of complex first party coverage, construction, and general liability matters on behalf of clients. Prior to joining the firm, he interned with the Civil and Appellate Divisions of the United States Attorney's Office for the Middle District of Florida which provided him with extensive exposure to federal litigation in a number of different practice areas.

George is a graduate of the Stetson University College of Law, where he was on the Dispute Resolution/Negotiation Team and the first place finisher in the 2018 William & Mary National Invitational Negotiation Tournament. He also served as a teaching fellow for both Federal Civil Procedure and Federal Pre-Trial Practice. George is a recipient of Stetson's Certificate of Concentration in Advocacy. George received his undergraduate degree in Entrepreneurship from Florida State University.
