

Attorney Bio

Jacarri Walker is a senior associate in WSHB's Boca Raton office. Jacarri's varied practice focuses on insurance coverage, first-party defense, assisting the London insurance market, construction defect, and commercial litigation. A native of South Florida, Jacarri obtained his undergraduate degree from Florida Atlantic University. He later attended Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, where he was the president of the NSU Trial Association, Justice for Teams of the Moot Court Society, a member of the Black Law Students Association, and a member of the Stephen R. Booher American Inns of Court. While in law school, Jacarri competed in several coveted mock trial and moot court competitions, was a recipient of the Sheldon J. Schlesinger trial advocacy award and inducted into the Order of Barristers.

Jacarri began his legal career at the Miami-Dade County State Attorney's Office where he prosecuted a variety of cases ranging from misdemeanor, juvenile delinquency, and first, second, and third-degree felony offenses. Jacarri brings this experience in the courtroom and in trial to every matter he now handles throughout the State of Florida. Aside from the practice of law, Jacarri is currently a member of the Black Prosecutors Association — Charles B. Morton Chapter and the young lawyer's section of the Florida Bar.
