

Attorney Bio

Jonathan “Boomer” Hart is senior counsel in WSHB’s Florida offices, where his practice concentrates on complex first party insurance coverage, litigation, and counseling. Boomer handles various first party matters including claims involving disasters, fraud, theft, suspected arson, and business interruption claims. In connection with his insurance practice, Boomer regularly advises numerous London market insuring syndicates.

Boomer also has extensive experience in employment-related litigation including, defense of employers against claims of discrimination, harassment, and wrongful termination. Additionally, he defends nationally known trucking companies in cases involving significant and catastrophic injuries as well as wrongful death claims.

Prior to joining the firm, Boomer’s practice focused on handling litigation for nursing homes and assisted living facilities. Boomer graduated cum laude from Stetson University College of Law, where he was the recipient of the Walter Mann Award, was selected to join the National Order of Barristers and served as president of the Moot Court Board. While attending law school, he was a judicial extern for the Honorable K. Rodney May of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida and the Honorable Elizabeth A. Kovachevich of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Boomer received his undergraduate degree in finance and business management from Florida State University.
