

Attorney Bio

Kristin is a senior associate in the firm's Sonoma County office, where she focuses her practice on a wide variety of complex civil litigation matters. She is well regarded for her legal prowess in handling transportation related cases from inception to resolution.

Kristin is a graduate of the University of San Francisco School of Law. While at USF, Kristin participated in the Employment Law Clinic, where she worked on cases before the California Labor Commission, the EEOC, and the National Labor Relations Board. She also interned twice with the City Attorney of San Francisco, once for the Government Team, then subsequently for the Workers' Compensation Team.

Prior to law school, Kristin interned at the US Department of State Office on NATO and the OSCE in Washington, D.C. Kristin also interned at the Office of the Mayor of San Francisco, for Gavin Newsom's Office of Neighborhood Services.

Kristin completed her undergraduate degree at UCLA, where she was part of the College Honors Program and spent a term in Washington, D.C. with UCLA's Center for American Public Policy's Quarter in D.C. Program.
