Bobbi Edwards is a senior associate in WSHB's Portland office handling complex civil litigation. Bobbi is also sought out for counsel on employment issues, handling a myriad of risk management and litigation issues for businesses through the State of Oregon.

She enjoys experience in a wide variety of practice areas, including mergers and acquisitions and corporate transactional law. Most recently, prior to joining the firm, Bobbi helped over 100 California veterinarians solve their legal challenges. She has also served as a professor at the University of La Verne College of Law teaching courses to prepare students and recent law school graduates pass the California Bar Exam.

Bobbi graduated cum laude from Case Western Reserve University School of Law, where she was a Law and Leadership Scholar. Previously she attended Ohio State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science with a focus on sustainability and land use.

When not practicing law, Bobbi is an advocate and coach for a non-profit girls' rugby program. She also enjoys family time spent exploring the trails in the Pacific Northwest.
