Brandon Maharajh is a senior associate in WSHB's New York office, where he focuses his practice on complex civil litigation including torts and catastrophic injury. He is experienced in all aspects of litigation including conducting depositions, discovery, motions, appeals, court conferences, mediations, arbitrations, as well as small claims trials in New York State Courts.

Mr. Maharajh obtained his Bachelor's Degree at Boston College while enrolled in the Pre-Law Program with a dual major in Economics and Communications. He received his law degree from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center, where he was the Associate Editor-in-Chief of the Moot Court Honors Board and won the Nassau County Moot Court Competition. While in law school, he interned for the Honorable Judge Dorothy Eisenberg in the Eastern District of New York at the Alfonse M. D'Amato Federal Courthouse located in Central Islip, New York. He also interned for the United States Attorney's Office of the Eastern District of New York.

Mr. Maharajh is admitted to the New York and New Jersey Bar and is a member of the New York State Bar Association, Suffolk County Bar Association and the Nassau Suffolk Trial Lawyers' Association. His interests outside of work include community service, movies, sports, traveling, friends and family time.
