

CRAIG F. ANDERSEN

OF COUNSEL

Northern California, CA
T: 925.222.3408
F: 925.356.8250
candersen@wshblaw.com

Craig has been very involved in the entire entitlement process and represented a number of local, regional and national businesses regarding new sites. Craig has also represented and continues to represent a number of entities involved in the waste industry. He has served as a Temporary Superior Court Commissioner in Contra Costa County. He also possesses a private pilot's license and a general engineering contractor's license. Craig has lectured extensively regarding various business topics. He also serves as a director of a publicly-held banking institution, Presidio Bank, and of the privately held construction company, Corey Delta Engineering. Craig is also very involved as an advisor/instructor to the Contra Costa First Tee program.

HONORS & RECOGNITIONS

- Guest instructor at the Office of Executive Education, Harvard University Graduate School of Design
- Lectured extensively with the American Institute of Architects, PGA of America, Northern California PGA, American Society of Golf Course Architects, Associated Building Contractors of America and Associated General Contractors of America

MEMBERSHIPS

- AGC
- ABC

PRIMARY PRACTICE AREAS

Commercial and Business Litigation
Construction Environmental
Real Estate and Land Use

EDUCATION

University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law (J.D., 1974)
University of Washington, Seattle (B.A., 1971)

LICENSED TO PRACTICE IN

California