David Ilganayev is an attorney licensed to practice law in New York, New Jersey, Vermont, and Federal Court. He focuses his practice on civil and commercial litigation, catastrophic injuries, property damage, and business disputes.

Mr. Ilganayev's previous experience includes working as both an associate and law clerk in boutique firms throughout New York City. He was also a judicial law clerk in the New York State Supreme Court New York County; and a legal assistant at the Kings County District Attorney's Office and the New York State Office of the Attorney General.

He earned his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School, where he was a Lisle Merit-Based Scholar. While in law school, David also served as the Brooklyn Entertainment & Sports Law Chair and was an Honor scholar. David received his B.S. in Business Management and Finance with a minor in Accounting as well as a B.B.A. in Business Marketing and Pre-Med from Brooklyn College CUNY. While at Brooklyn College, he was the President of the Jewish Club, Vice-President of the Business Club, and Treasurer of the Fashion and Marketing Club.

Between the years 2017 and 2018, Mr. Ilganayev provided legal aid to families with immigration, domestic violence, and custody issues through Sanctuary for Families. He was awarded the Brooklyn Law Pro Bono 2020 Award for these contributions.

David is a member of the New York State Bar Association and Brooklyn Bar Association.
