Xheni is a senior associate at WSHB's Las Vegas office with a wide variety of experience in civil litigation matters. She received her law degree from William S. Boyd School of Law on a full academic scholarship in 2019. While in law school, Xheni was a member of the Nevada Law Journal and served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Elissa F. Cadish. Additionally, she worked as a law clerk for a personal injury firm, focused in representing clients in motor vehicle and complex tort matters. She brings this unique perspective to the defense of our clients in every case she handles.

Upon graduating from law school, Xheni continued working in civil litigation, representing clients in product liability, professional liability, complex torts, and breach of contract.
